ANALYSIS

ANALYSIS OF DIRECTOR OF GENERAL SERVICES' TRAVEL

We have conducted a follow-up review of the state travel undertaken by Mr. William J. Anthony, Director of General Services, to determine the extent to which the Department of General Services has rectified the problems we identified in our May 1984 report concerning Mr. Anthony's travel "Analysis of Director of General Services' Travel," (Report F-437). We performed this review as required by the 1984 Budget Act, item 1760-001-666, paragraph 4.

William J. Anthony, Director of General Services, made 27 trips between March 1, 1984, and October 31, 1984. As we defined it in our earlier review, a "trip" is travel that originates and terminates at the headquarters location in Sacramento; a trip may include travel to other locations between the departure from and return to Sacramento. Twenty-five of these trips were to Los Angeles, and on 9 of the 25, Mr. Anthony spent the weekend in the Los Angeles area. On 3 of the 9 weekends in Los Angeles, Mr. Anthony had possession of a state car. All identified travel costs appear reasonable. We could not conclude whether violations of state regulations occurred on 6 of the 27 trips because the necessary information was not available.

In our earlier review, which covered the period from June 1, 1980, through February 29, 1984, we found that Mr. Anthony traveled 169 times between Sacramento and Los Angeles for both the Department of General Services and the Department of Justice, his previous employer. We determined that violations of state regulations occurred in 7 of these trips; we could not conclude whether any violations occurred on 14 other trips because there was insufficient information available.

Attachment A provides the information we obtained from the travel claims that Mr. Anthony filed for the period covered by this review. We analyzed each trip or expense item claimed, and if sufficient support was available, we concluded whether it conformed with the regulations contained in the State Administrative Manual or the Department of Personnel Administration regulations. Attachment B, provided by Mr. Anthony, contains specific details of Mr. Anthony's travel. Attachment C explains the abbreviations used in Attachments A and B. Finally, Attachment D contains a general description of the regulations and other pertinent information applicable to the travel charges listed in Attachment A.

Frequency of Travel

Of the 27 trips that Mr. Anthony made, 25 (93 percent) involved travel to Los Angeles; 2 of the 25 required subsequent travel by car to other locations. On 9 of the 25 trips to Los Angeles, Mr. Anthony spent the weekend in the area. Business meetings preceded the weekend on one occasion, followed the weekend on four occasions, and spanned the weekend on three occasions. The remaining weekend that Mr. Anthony spent in the Los Angeles area followed a bereavement leave.

Expenditures Claimed for Travel

Table 1 summarizes the travel expenses that Mr. Anthony claimed for the period of our review.

Airfare

We obtained airfare charges from the airline ticket coupons and stubs attached to Mr. Anthony's travel expense claims. Airfare costs totaled $2,946.00, of which $2,802.00 was for 25 trips to Los Angeles and $144.00 for one trip to San Diego.

Except for discrepancies over two dates, all trips reported on the travel claims agreed with the travel indicated on the airline tickets. For a trip from Sacramento to Los Angeles between June 28 and July 2, the airline ticket showed departure from Sacramento on June 29, while the travel expense claim showed June 28. According to Ms. Joanne Rhinehart, Mr. Anthony's secretary, the original departure date was June 29, but it was changed to June 28 to enable Mr. Anthony to meet with the Governor on the next day; the airline ticket was valid for either date. The second exception involved travel between Sacramento and Los Angeles from July 2 to July 9. The return ticket showed a July 5 return date; however, the "5" on the date, which was typewritten, had been crossed out, and a handwritten "9" was substituted in its place. Mr. Anthony took bereavement leave on July 5 and 6 and returned to Sacramento on July 9, after the weekend.

State Car Use

From the Department of General Services' Fleet Administration, we obtained billings on 18 of the 24 trips for which Mr. Anthony used a state car in Los Angeles. For all 18 trips, the mileage shown on the Fleet Administration's billings appears reasonable given the activities that Mr. Anthony reported. The charges for Mr. Anthony's use of a state car on these 18 trips totaled $585.64.

We were unable to obtain billings for 6 of the 24 trips for which Mr. Anthony indicated that he used a state car in Los Angeles. Mr. Anthony made 3 of the 6 trips in October, and billings are not yet available for that month. The other 3 trips were made earlier, but for some reason, they have not been billed.

Mr. Anthony had possession of a state car on three of the nine weekends that he traveled to Los Angeles. The billings of the Department of General Services' Fleet Administration provide mileage records for all three of these weekends. The mileage recorded appears reasonable in relation to the activities that Mr. Anthony reported.

Per Diem Subsistence Allowance

Mr. Anthony is entitled to a per diem allowance at the long-term subsistence rate when he travels to Los Angeles, where he maintains a family home. For the period covered by this report, he chose not to claim this allowance because of the questions we raised in our earlier audit regarding the propriety of some of Mr. Anthony's claims for per diem allowance. However, Mr. Anthony did claim per diem allowances totaling $234.00 for 2 of the 27 trips. He claimed $66.00 for a trip to Del Mar and $168.00 for a trip to San Diego.

Mr. Anthony claimed one day's per diem at the short-term rate on a trip to Del Mar, via Los Angeles, for a meeting of the State Race Track Leasing Commission. He also claimed subsistence at the short-term rate for a designated high-cost area during a trip to San Diego for Board of Control meetings held on October 22 and 23.

Other Expenses

Mr. Anthony's other expenses, totaling $64.25, included carfare, tolls, and parking. Mr. Anthony properly substantiated all items claimed according to the requirements of the State Administrative Manual.

Comparison of Current Review
With Previous Review of Travel

The 1984 Budget Act directs the Auditor General to conduct a follow-up review of the state travel undertaken by the Director of General Services and to determine the extent to which the problems raised in the Auditor General's May 1984 report have been corrected. As discussed in the preceding sections, we identified no inappropriate claims and no violations of state regulations. Table 2 compares Mr. Anthony's travel during the two periods that we reviewed.

*Figure incomplete because not all billings for use of state car were available.

As the table shows, there is little change from one period to the other in the relative frequency of Mr. Anthony's travel. Mr. Anthony's travel to Los Angeles increased by 9 percent, but the number of trips to Los Angeles that included a weekend dropped from 95 percent to 36 percent of the trips to Los Angeles. In addition, the number of weekends that Mr. Anthony used a state or rental car while in Los Angeles dropped from 80 percent to 33 percent.

The average travel expense per trip decreased even though the average airfare for each trip showed little change. Charges for using state cars have also decreased, but we cannot determine the extent of the decrease because the billing information is incomplete. Mr. Anthony's claims for per diem expenses dropped dramatically from an average cost of $70.37 per trip to an average cost of $9.36 per trip, a decrease of 86.7 percent. The decrease is due, in some measure, to Mr. Anthony's decision not to claim per diem at the long-term subsistence rate to which he is entitled when he travels in Los Angeles. Other expenses, primarily parking fees, show a modest increase. In summary, the average cost for Mr. Anthony's trips to Los Angeles and other areas declined by 33 percent.

The number of violations of state regulations also declined from four to zero. Instances in which there was insufficient information to determine whether a violation occurred also dropped from eleven to six.

CONCLUSION

During the period of our review, Mr. William J. Anthony, Director of General Services, made 27 trips for which he filed travel claims. We were unable to determine whether any violation of state regulations occurred on 6 trips because of late billings for the use of state cars. All identified travel costs appear reasonable.

We conducted this review under the authority vested in the Auditor General by Section 10500 et seq. of the California Government Code.

THOMAS W. HAYES

November 29, 1984

Thomas W. Hayes, Auditor General
660 J Street, Suite 300
Sacramento, CA 95814

Dear Mr. Hayes:

Follow-up Review of W. J. Anthony's Travel Expenses (F-485)

I am pleased that you found Mr. Anthony's travel expenses to be reasonable, and that there were no violations of state regulations.

Your report indicates that Mr. Anthony chose not to claim per diem allowances while at his family home in Los Angeles because of the questions raised in your previous audit. This is incorrect. Mr. Anthony did not claim per diem while at his family home in Los Angeles because it is the Administration's policy that such reimbursement not be claimed by gubernatorial appointees who maintain two residences.

The internal audit section of the Department of General Services will review the six state car billings which have not yet been processed and which you referenced in your conclusion. The results of this review will be forwarded as soon as they become available.

Additionally, your report mentioned a decrease in the number of Mr. Anthony's trips to Los Angeles which spanned weekends. This decrease was caused by the Olympic Law Enforcement Coordinating Council, of which Mr. Anthony was a member, changing its regular meeting day from Fridays to Tuesdays; thus, thirteen weekend-associated trips were moved to the middle of the week.

Sincerely,

Secretary of the Agency
